Adm. Stansfield Turner, Director
Bureau of Counter Intelligence
Washington, D. C.

Dear Stan:

After all these many years, I am ashamed that I have not written before to at least congratulate you on your appointment as director; so please accept belated congratulations.

Adding insult to injury,; I would like to ask a favor of you. I have a friend who has a son entering his senior year of high school, and is very interested in preparing for a career with the C. I. A., and as such, would like to know what field of study he should pursue. If it is not too much trouble, I would appreciate your suggestions.

Sure hope that someday in the near future, you and Pat will be able to return to the West, and that we have the pleasure of spending at least an evening catching up with all your experiences and thoughts.

My best to both you and Pat.

Regards
